

Privacy Policy

IShopforThings.com will never sell or give our customer's information to third parties.

What information do we collect? How do we use it?

When ordering our software from any of our sites or partner sites, we collect the purchaser's name, email address, mailing address, and phone number. This allows us to process and fulfill orders and provide notification of the order status. We do not collect or keep credit card information on our server. This information is collected by our 3rd party credit card processor instead.

How do 3rd party credit card processors protect customer information?

Customers who buy through IShopforThings.com or products sites are shopping on a secure server through PayPal that encrypts all of the customer's personal information including name, address and credit card number. Encryption ensures that no one can access or use personal information in an unauthorized manner.

What about cookies?

IShopforThings.com uses cookies to improve your experience on our site. Cookies are small text files placed on your computer through your browser when you visit a web site. These cookies do not store sensitive data.

Privacy Changes

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post the changes here so that you will always know what information we collect about you, and how we use it.
